

Haiti Cultural Exchange Boutik

Haiti Cultural Exchange is a nonprofit organization that develops, presents and promotes the cultural expressions of the Haitian people. We seek to raise awareness of social issues and foster cultural understanding and appreciation through programs in the arts, education and public affairs. The HCX Boutik offers an array of unique items by Haitian artists based in the United States and Haiti. Carrying one-of-a-kind and hard to find books, housewares, cds, jewelry, and metal work, the Boutik offers an opportunity for artists, designers, and others to showcase their work during HCX events, outdoor festivals, and via our various social media platforms.

Boutik Consignment

The Haiti Cultural Exchange (HCX) Boutik is located at 558 St. John's Place, Brooklyn NY inside of FiveMyles Gallery and the HCX office space. Items range from jewelry, books, DVD's, CD's, artisanal houseware, and decorative display pieces. Artists can either donate items to the boutique or agree to a consignment deal where 30% of your proceeds benefit our nonprofit organization.

HCX Pop-Up Boutik

Haiti Cultural Exchange hosts programs every month held in different venues and locations. Selecting key items that reflect Haiti and the Haitian Diaspora in relevance to the event, HCX brings the boutique as a pop-up shop to various HCX and community events. Opportunities are sometimes also available for artists to come and table. In return, we ask that 20% of the proceeds made that night benefit our nonprofit organization.

Vending Opportunities

Haiti Cultural Exchange has many outdoor vending opportunities throughout the year. Programs are either curated by HCX or in collaboration with other organizations. This gives artists/small businesses the opportunity to showcase their work directly to new communities.
